Teaching About Other Countries

When: Tuesday March 31
4:00pm – 6:00pm
Where: One World Centre,
5 King William St,
Bayswater, WA, 6053
Who: Teachers of primary students
Cost: $30 for OWC members
and students,
$40 for non-members
(Contact the OWC to find out about becoming a member)

This workshop will introduce participants to issues to consider when teaching about other countries. It is based on an Australian resource that provides a teaching model that teachers can adopt. The model focuses on students discovering what countries have in common and how they are interdependent, yet have their own identities.

Participants will:

- Develop a greater understanding of what makes a country
- Improve their teaching practices in relation to teaching about other countries.
- Establish some context for learning about one country in particular.
- Take part in activities that could be used in the classroom.
- Receive a copy of the book, Teaching About Other Countries.

Registrations are ESSENTIAL and must be made before Tuesday 24th March. Please complete this section and send to the One World Centre. Registration confirmations will be emailed by Thursday 27th March. Please ensure you include an email address.
